REED'S STOCK ROSE.

COUNTY COUNSELOR GAVE FRANK P. SEBREE A RACE.

THE DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES.

INDICATIONS POINT TO SEBREE'S NOMINATION TO-MORROW.

Light Vote Cast and the Only Interest Was in the Vote for the Lower House-Martin Regan Lost Out in the Sixth by Only Eight Votes.

The Democratic city primaries were held yesterday to select delegates to the city convention, which will be held in the Gilliss opera house to-morrow. The vote was surprisingly light in many wards, while in others it was heavier than had been anticipated. The total vote cast was 3,347.

Frank P. Sebree has a majority of the delegations on the face of the returns, but the surprising rise in the stock of James A. Reed, county counselor, is admitted by Sebree's friends to make Reed at least a formidable competitor, though all the indications point to the triumph of Shannonism to-morrow. Joe Shannon, however, the manager of Sebree's campaign, would make no prediction last night, while a prominent Reed man declared the county counselor would be named.

The primaries were the quietest held by Jackson county Democrats in years. Despite the flamboyant resolutions of the Aurora Club about winning Greater Kansas City for the Missouri Tammany, there seemed to be a feeling of depression abroad. The voting was done perfunctorily, and the prevailing, though unexpected, sentiment was that the nomination of a ticket was merely a formal matter for the purpose of retaining an organization. That this opinion was largely held is shown by the small vote cast. The polls were never deserted, but it was the same old crowd of roughlooking political heelers who stayed all day long. In the most "high-toned" wards in the city the solid, substantial business men of the party were conspicuous by their absence. The assurance of victory was not felt, and the primaries degenerated into a mere war between two factions, Shannon and anti-Shannon. The former, however, had the machine at his back, and rode rough shod over the better element of the party. The opposition to Shannon was spasmodic and ill-organized. It was not sufficiently determined to disturb the monotony of a cut-and-dried programme in most of the wards, and the contest depended for its interest—there was no excitement—upon the strusgle to get the nomination for the lower rora Club about winning Greater Kansas there was no exciten struggle to get the nomination for the lower Second ward—W. J. Powers.

Third ward—H. D. Brown.
Fifth ward—J. O. Beroth.
Sixth ward—John P. Lynch.
Eighth ward—Harvey B. Posey.
Eleventh ward—Pat Moore.
Twelfth ward—J. Q. Watkins.

In the other wards the nominations will be made by the delegations.

Beed stock ran up at a rapid rate during the day and the county counselor will unidoubtedly get many votes in professedly Sebree delegations. Shannon made many compromises before delegations were filed, which accounts for the fact that there were so few contesting delegations. This was especially true in the Ninth ward and Reed will get many votes from Shannon-ville. Reed fell heir to the Gibson strength and the votes of the friends of the genial judge were given to Reed for first choice, Gibson second in case of a deadlock.

The only contests of special interest were

The only contests of special interest were in the Second, Sixth, Tenth and Four-teenth wards. teenth wards.

Jim Pendergast had it all his own way in the First ward and the "Boss of the Bottoms" of course emerged from the fight with flying colors.

Of four candidates for the council in the Record ward three ware specific ward.

Second ward three were saloonkeepers—John Clifford, W. J. Powers and Alvin Hatch. The fourth candidate was John S. Watson, of the Centropolis hotel. After the polls closed the judges in the First district refused to count because watchers from other wards were present in the interest of Clifford for the council from the Sec-ond ward. The trouble was smoothed over and the count proceeded.

Regan Came Within Eight of It. One of the livellest contests of the day was the fight in the Sixth ward between Martin Regan and Councilman John P.
Lynch: The latter has made a fair councilman for a Democrat, working for the interests of his constituents except when the party lash was cracked. But there seemed to be something magic about Martin's name, and the great unwashed flocked to his standard. Lynch was nominated on the narrow margin of eight.

Some friction resulted over the action of the police in refusing to permit several men from swearing in their votes. Police Commissioner Gregory went to each district and put a stop to the arbitrary action of the police, who were acting in the interest of Martin Regan.

The fight in the Tenth ward was on Sebree and anti-Sebree or Shannon and anti-Shannon lines. The Spofford delegation flopped to Sebree and the contest was quite animated in comparison with the Martin Regan and Councilman John P.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

The Words of Friends Are Gennine and Reliable. It is easy for people to talk about themselves, and state what they may have done, but it is far better o have other people speak for you. The words which follow are the frank expressions of people who know of what they speak: Rev. Wm. W. Whitney, of Linlithgo, N. Y., says 'I have been afflicted more or less for six years past with malaria, ague, have had pneumonia three times and have been troubled with bronchical and catarrhal trouble of the throat. Two years ago I had the grip, which ran into catarrhal pneumonia. While in this condition I began taking something of which I had heard much, and am rejoiced to say that I have been practically cured by the use of Duffy's pure malt whiskey."

Mr. John K. Chase, Amesbury, Mass., says: "For some six years past my wife has been suffering from nervous prostration. For years she was troubled with insomnia, and nothing recommended by the most eminent physicians would induce sleep. Under the advice of physicians she recently tried Duffy's mait whiskey in small quantities and with the most catisfactory results. While Mrs. Chase has always been staunch in her temperance principles and conistent in practice, she has no hesitation in recom-nending to invalids who need a gentle stimulant, Duffy's pure malt whiskey." E. C. Avila, of the Brooklyn association for improving the condition of the poor, says: "I used Duffy's malt whiskey for the past two years, having suffered from severe headaches and nervou use of the whiskey and have gained nearly seventeer ounds in weight."

The above statements speak for themselves

erett Eiliot. Mayor Jones was then intro-duced and spoke briefly, followed in turn by the several gentlemen of his party, who ail disclaimed any wish to keep the merry-makers longer from their dancing.

SAYS FINDLEY ACCUSES HIM. Mayor Jones Declares the Gambling Boss Called Him an "Immoral Man."

The Sixth Ward Italian Republican Club met last night at the criminal courtroom and listened to several speeches in the interest of the candidacy of James M. Jones for the mayoralty nomination. H. Rubin presided and L. Crider acted as secretary of the meeting. Mayor Jones made the principal speecn of the evening. He said by way of introduction that he was are to get at least 30 per cent of the Italian and the Jewish vote of the city, both at the primaries and the general election. His reason for this belief was that as police judge he had always treated Italians and Jews with fairness and justice when the police brought them into his court.

"When I was a candidate for mayor two years ago," said Mayor Jones, "I promised the people that I would not allow another yard of asphalt pavement to be laid in the city unless there was a reduction in the price that was then prevailing. I kept that promise. I refused to permit any more asphalt pavement bills to be passed by the council till a reduction of 30 cents per yard was made.

"I promised also in that campaign that met last night at the criminal courtroom was made.

"I promised also in that campaign that gambling would be suppressed in Kansas City, and that Ed Findley would be run out of town. Well, didn't I keep that promise? Findley did leave. He went to Chicago and to New York, and a short time ago be came back and told the people that he did not like the Jones administration; that my appointees were not all men of good moral character, and that the morals of Mayor Jones himself were not above reproach. But, my fellow citizens, I will dismiss this subjest by calling your attention to the fact that, with the assistance of Messrs. Scarritt and Gregory on the police board. I have succeeded in driving all the gambling hells from the city."

In closing, the mayor said a politician might be a good man. That if he does the people's business well he is deserving of proper credit and should be considered by his fellowmen as a good man.

A colored quartette furnished the music for the occasion and the other speakers were Clarence McElroy. Everett Elliott, Tom Bell, G. M. Randall, Tom Jones, D. A. Brown, H. A. Dew and Mr. Fidelli, the Italian vice consul. vas made, "I promised also in that campaign that

At that time he was well dressed. As he passed in he shook hands with the officer and chatted with him when he came out. About 4 o'clock the same man came back, wearing a coarse suit of clothing and appearing to be a genuine bum. He passed in and was voted again, so Officer Young stated. He said he recognized the fellow and heard him remark: "If any of you fellows have another ragged suit, trot it out and I'll do it again."

Something Unforeseen Transpires," He Says. City Auditor John G. Bishon Colonel L. H. Waters and Judge John B. Stone ad dressed largely attended meetings last night—in the interest of the former for the Republican mayorally nomination—at Cen-tropolis and Fifteenth street and Jackson avenue. Mr. Bishop said: "I am well sat-isfied with the outlook, and unless someisfied with the outlook, and unless some-thing unforescen transpires I am sure to be nominated. The Jones and Green men have been flying at each other's throats in a way that it displeasing to many people and the result is that my friends will go quietly to the polls and nominate me. I have endeavored to conduct my campaign in a way such as would create no feeling in the ranks of the party, and I feel that I have done so. Just wait for the ballots to be counted and then it will be seen that I am all right."

Republican Nominating Convention. Chairman Love, of the city Republican committee, announced yesterday that the city Republican convention would be held in Turner hall at Twelfth and Oak streets Saturday, and that it would be called to order promptly at 10 o'clock a. m. This hall is pronounced to be in safe condition for the accommodation of large bodies.

Ward Workers Were Turbulent. During the counting of the ballots at Fifth and Campbell streets about 11 o'clock fifth and Campbell streets about 11 o'clock last evening, a crowd of ward politicians became so boisterous that a call was sent in for police officers.
